Head Coach Suzzane Wills

Suzanne Wills begins her third year as coach of the women's lacrosse team at Cortland after a 4-1 regular season mark in 1976. Wills, who has been at Cortland for nine years, received her bachelor's degree from Tufts College and went on to earn her master's degree from Boston University.

Wills has taught at Southwestern Tennessee College, Simmons College and Boston Bouve. Wills played for and coached the Boston Association lacrosse team. Prior to her appointment at Cortland she served as a graduate assistant at Syracuse University.

She teaches activity and theory courses at Cortland, and is especially active in the program for the handicapped.

Lacrosse Outlook

With more than 15 returning veterans available and some exceptionally skilled rookies, Coach Suzzane Wills is optimistic about the new season. One outstanding returnee, according to Wills, should be senior Kathy Henderson. Henderson is expected to be one of the leading scorers for the Lady Dragons this year, as she was two years ago. Last season Henderson was studying in Germany, as was classmate Vanessa Crozier. Crozier also is expected to see a lot of action for the Cortland offense. She plays attack wing.

Another outstanding prospect is senior Brenda Jaeger. As a probable starter at center, Jaeger will be the major link between the defense and the attack for the Lady Dragons.

Other returning seniors expected to lead the team include Deb Howard at home, Joan Mincio at attack wing, and Kathy Feldman at the point.

Wills stated that the squad is equally as strong as last year's team. Strong opponents for the Lady Dragons will be Penn State, which beat Cortland 16-1 last year, and defending state champion Brockport State. The team will be facing two new opponents when the players travel to the University of Rhode Island campus to meet Rhode Island and the University of Massachusetts.
