OUTLOOK

The team looks to improve on last year's performance as coach Larry Martin's top four clubmen return. Bruce Goldmacher played #1 last spring, had a record of 3-7, and averaged 79.8 strokes per outing; Ron Carlson was 5-4, 79.1; Rich Rhodes was 2½-5, 80.4; and Dan Letourneau was 3-3, 80.5.

Other returnees include Carl Hauser, 1-4, 85.7; Jim Nugent, 0-2, 82.0; and George Homokay, 0-1 and 83.0. Given good shots to crack the line-up are transfers Steve Sholkoff, who had two good seasons at Nassau Community, and Orange County transfer Jay Van Wagenen. Among others in contention are freshman Robin Shalkey, a five handicapper from Delhi, and juniors Craig Gebhardt and Joe Castrilli. Attractive Cortland Country Club will again serve as the Red Dragons' home course.

GOLF COACH

Larry Martin is back on the golf job for the second year after a two-year absence to Springfield College where he earned his doctorate in physical education. This will mark his fifth year as golf coach. Presently a consistent 70's golfer, Martin was a two year starter in both golf and football as a Cortland undergraduate. Holding a master's from Cortland, Martin taught and coached in North-Country high schools for 10 years, handling football, basketball, baseball, golf and athletic directorship duties during that span. He returned to Cortland in 1963 and coached the freshman football team for two years before moving up to varsity offensive line coach, a position he still holds. He is an associate professor of physical education.
