BENEDICTION.

"AIM HIGH; SEARCH DEEP."

CLASS SONG of '72.

Words by Esther E. Baldwin.

Music Selected.

Forth we come with words of promise,
Fraught with cheer before we part;
May our voices, sweetly blended,
Touch a chord in every heart.

Chorus.

May our lives be zealous, faithful,
In the work we've learned to love,
Ever seeking hidden treasures,
With our aim high, high above.

Ours has been the student's labor,
Through the fleeting years here spent,
And we've known the teacher's trials,
'Mid the joys our work has lent.

Trusting that the seed is precious,
Which has oft been sown in tears,
May we hope that we shall gather
Golden sheaves in future years.

When we've finished earnest searching,
In the mines of knowledge here,
May we gain celestial wisdom,
From the fount of truth so clear.
