COLLEGE AT CORTLAND

JOE PIERSON
Head Coach

An assistant professor of physical education, Joe Pierson is in his seventh year as head track coach at the SUNY College at Cortland. Pierson has led the indoor track team to five consecutive titles in the New York State Collegiate Track and Field Association. In addition, his outdoor squad captured the NYSCTFA title in 1970 and the SUNYAC title in 1971.

Prior to joining the Cortland faculty, Pierson taught and coached at his alma mater, Southern Illinois University, and at Illinois' Carbondale High School. He also has served as a member of the physical education staff at West Point where he worked in physical education research - especially pertaining to athletic injuries - in addition to handling the conditioning programs for football and basketball teams.

While an undergraduate at Southern Illinois University, he competed in the long jump and high jump. He earned an M.S. degree from S.I.U. in 1965.

FRED TAUBE
Assistant Coach

Fred Taube has been a member of the Physical Education Department at Cortland since 1970 and has worked as an assistant coach in indoor track since that time. He works principally with jumping events and hurdles. He also is freshman soccer coach.

A graduate of SUNY College at Brockport, Taube earned a master's degree in physical education at the University of North Carolina and has a Ph.D. from the University of Utah. Before coming to Cortland, he was at MacMurry College in Jacksonville, Ill., where he coached track and soccer for seven years. He also coached the soccer club while he taught at Auburn University in Alabama from 1960 to 1963.
