CLASS SONG OF '73.

WORDS BY ELLEN FULLER.

MUSIC SELECTED.

Gather blessings while treading the pathways of earth,
For they brighten life's devious way ;
Gather jewels of knowledge, for great is their worth,
Wisdom's ways lead to opening day.
Gather bright christian virtues to shine in the soul,
As we labor to climb to that far-away goal
Where the age of eternity o'er us shall roll,
At our Father's right hand in the sky.

Gather wealth if thou can'st with clean hands and pure heart,
Not to hoard but to use for the truth ;
Gather love without stint, for 'twill true joy impart,
Fill thy soul in the morning of youth ;
Fill thy soul till the full tide o'erflows all its bounds,
Pouring love, light and warmth, as the sun in his rounds
On the poor, on the weak, on the hurt with sin's wounds,
On all those whom God's mercy can love.

Gather pearls which lie thick in the pathway of life,
Gather garlands whose price is untold ;
Ever soothe with kind words hateful discord and strife,
Thus gathering bliss manifold.
As the husbandman gathers and scatters his grain
With a hope many fold to receive it again,
Will we scatter our blessings with heart, hand, and brain,
Knowing well that the Master doth heed.
