FOOTBALL

OUTLOOK

Coach Roger Robinson, embarking on his eighth season in the Red Dragon saddle, has never had a losing campaign at Cortland and this year looks to be no different. With a 39-19 record behind him, Robinson will lead 19 letter winners into the toughest football schedule the school has ever faced.

Last year's team started fast but then bogged down, losing its last three games to finish 4-4, a bad season for Robinson. The 1967 team was also 4-4, but take away those two seasons and Robinson's charges have played at a .738 win speed.

Last year's squad was potent enough offensively to set 14 new team and individual records while tying four more. Seven offensive starters are back from that cast, including the three ringleaders, all seniors with one more shot at the record book.

John Anselmo, 5-11, 185, will again direct the Dragons' pro-set attack which averaged 27.4 points a contest last year. He threw nine t.d. passes last year despite a bothersome thumb injury and he is rated an excellent scrambler and leader. John holds a number of school records including game and season total offense marks and single game passing yardage at 211, set during the Alfred nightmare loss of a year past.

Anselmo's favorite target and Little All-America candidate Earl Rogers is a three-year starter at wide receiver. Rogers, 6-3, 195, was Honorable Mention A-A last year and holds nearly every school receiving record on the books, many of which were formerly held by Rod Verkey, now trying to make the switch to linebacker with the Atlanta Falcons. Coach Robinson and touring pro scouts rate Rogers a good pro bet. Some may question his speed, but none will doubt his hands or agility. A good leaper and aggressive, he was an All-Conference basketball selection last winter, leading the SUNY loop in rebounding. It has been said that he can catch anything within hearing distance. He has averaged 17.5 yards per reception on 55 catches in two years.

Rushing record-holder, tailback Joe Bramante, 5-10, 195, should again carry the ball about 20 times a game. Last season the scooter gained a record 739 yards in the eight Dragon games, a better than 92 yards per game average. Joe, the team captain, is also the recipient of pro inquiries. He can go inside, outside and all the way.

There's also some good company to be kept among the other offensive returnees. Tom Butcher, 6-0, 223, will be Bramante's running mate at fullback. Butcher, very strong, is the workhorse of the back field. Not only is he a fine blocker, he is a strong running threat. His 4.7 40-yard time is just a hair behind Bramante. Robinson feels Butcher should be the best fullback he's ever had.

Paul Bestak, 6-1, 198, is a good athlete who will play either at wingback or as a defensive back. Strong and quick, he should do well wherever he plays. Fred Ciampi returns as punt specialist.

Among the returning offensive linemen are tackle Phil Grebinar, 5-9, 220, Bob Donnelly, 6-0, 229, and junior tight end Steve Girard, 6-3, 196. Robinson will have difficulty finding a tackle replacement for Honorable Mention All-American Pat Nugent, a signee with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, and must also come up with a center. A more pleasant problem will be figuring out how and where to play junior receiver Larry Sackett. He sat behind Rogers last year but Robinson feels he's too talented to just watch the action.

The defensive unit has no less than eight starters back and should be able to cut down on the charitable 18 points a game average allowed the enemy last fall. Anchoring the line will be tackle Mike White, 6-3, 238, who was an All-Conference baseball pitcher, and returning middle-guard Mike Cappeto, quick and experienced at 5-9, 209. Len Schlacter, 6-3, 241 and the conference heavyweight wrestling champ, is being moved from end, where he started a year ago, to offensive tackle.

Linebacker returnees are Ken Teetz, 6-0, 190, and Terry DeBoy, 6-0, 190. Paul Wehrum, 6-0, 160, is an All-Sectional candidate returning at a corner. A tremendous competitor, Paul was named Honorable Mention as a lacrosse attackman last spring. John Curtis, 6-0, 188, is back at a free safety and should enjoy a good campaign.

Graduated from the defensive corps are Captain Dave Urick at linebacker, end Jim Nelson and corner Gary Feger. All will be hard to replace as will placement man Al Rapp who scored 51 points last season on eight field goals and 27 punts.

Although it's the most experience that Robinson has ever had returning, there is still a question of depth. Success could well depend upon the ability of untried back-up men. There will be a handful of transfer hopefuls to join a scant group up from last year's 2-3 frosh team, weakest on the hill in years. Only 11 members of that team were invited to fall drills.

Here's how Coach Roger Robinson sees some of the major areas that will affect his Dragons as they kick off the new decade.

STRENGTHS: "With 17 of our starters returning we have high hopes for a fine season. Physically, we should be stronger than last year and, if we're able to keep our starting 22 men healthy, then the prospects would appear pretty good. Among our returnees are some of the best players I've coached at Cortland."

PROBLEMS: "Our offensive line lacks depth both at guard and tackle. We hope to add depth during the first week of drills by moving over some defensive players once we feel that the defense is set. Center position will be the only spot without experience but we have four players fighting for the starting job. We won't get as much help from the freshmen as we would like—only 11 from last year's frosh will be out, and this could add to our depth problem."

OFFENSIVELY: "Our offense can be our strength this year as we have our starting backfield and five starting linemen coming back. John Anselmo should improve at quarterback, considering he played last season with a dislocated thumb on his throwing hand, while Captain Joe Bramante and Tom Butcher give us a strong running threat. Earl Rogers is the best receiver Cortland has had and should have another fine season."

DEFENSIVELY: "We can start the season with three experienced starters among the four deep secondary, which should give us good pass coverage. Our line returns four of five starters to go with two linebackers who played a lot last year. We should be strong if planned position switches work out the way we hope they will."

THE OPPOSITION: "This will be the toughest schedule Cortland has faced in my eight years as head coach. Springfield, Indiana (the top college team in Pennsylvania), C. W. Post, Northeastern of Boston and Central Connecticut will be five very tough games. Alfred and Ithaca, both of which beat us last fall, will be looking to repeat, and I'm sure that both Adelphi and rival Brockport will be up for us. Indiana and Adelphi are the new teams on our schedule."

HEAD: Roger Robinson begins his eighth year with a 39-19 record and has never had a losing year at Cortland. In fact, no team with which he has been associated as a coach has ever suffered a sub-.500 campaign. Robinson came to Cortland in 1963 after serving as backfield coach and freshman track head for six years at Harvard. Prior to that he was head coach at Port Jervis High School in football and track, 1951-56, and before that served as line coach for two years under the late Andy Kerr at Lebanon Valley (Pa.).

Robinson graduated from Syracuse in 1947 and picked up his master's from the same school a year later. Upon graduation he played in the East-West Shrine Game in San Francisco and was also drafted by the Washington Redskins but passed on a shot at a pro career in favor of entering the teaching/coaching profession. He was a two-way performer at single wing tailback and defensive safety. The father of eight is an associate professor in the Physical Education Department. He will work with the offensive backs and kickers.

OFFENSIVE LINE: Larry Martin is a graduate of SUC Cortland where he was a two-year starter as an end under "Chugger" Davis. He also played golf as an undergrad and is presently the College's golf coach. He spent 10 years in the high school ranks before returning to Cortland. He holds a doctorate from Springfield.

DEFENSIVE LINE: Jack Emmer begins his second year in Dragon country and is also the varsity lacrosse coach. A 1967 graduate of Rutgers, he captained both the football and lacrosse squads. He holds most Rutgers pass receiving records. A 13th round pick of the New York Jets, he was a late cut and subsequently played two years with the pro Long Island Bulls. He coached and taught two years in Long Island high schools.

DEFENSIVE BACKS: Andy Grieve moves to this post after five years as head of the Baby Dragon gridders. A graduate of Ithaca College and N.Y.U., he spent 17 years in New York and Pennsylvania prep ranks before coming to Cortland in 1965.

FRESHMAN COACH: Bob Wallace is back in football after missing a year due to a sabbatical leave. He studied secondary physical education in Europe. Wallace is a '53 Cortland grad and was an outstanding QB under Davis. He began his teaching and coaching at Cortland in 1956. He also serves as varsity baseball coach and in 13 seasons has a winning percentage of .714 and has never had a losing season.

ASSISTANT: Vince Gonino was recently named second runner-up for the "Rookie Coach of the Year Award" among the more than 100 eligible varsity wrestling coaches across the country. He was a prep standout in football, wrestling and track at Watertown High before matriculating at Ohio State, from which he graduated in 1960. He was an outstanding wrestler with the Buckeyes. He begins his sixth year on the hill and will work with the frosh linemen this fall. He recently concluded wrestling and football summer camps at nearby Greek Peak.

Head Coach: Edward T. "Ted" Dunn, Colgate '42; 12-year record—51-52-3.

Assistants: Vic Mancini, Rhode Island '63; Graham Foster, Springfield '59.

Co-Captains: Emil Pauli Berni Barboza	Sports Information Director: Howard M. Davis 413-787-2380

A Glance at the Series

Start: 1946	Last Cortland victory: 1969, 40-21
Cortland, 2 wins	Last Springfield victory: 1953, 34-6
Springfield, 6 wins	Robinson vs. Springfield: 1-0-0
One tie	Dunn vs Cortland: 0-1-0

Game Notes: Cortland won both its first and most recent games against Springfield, but it's been tough sledding in between for the Dragons. The series resumed last year after a 15-year intermission. The two schools first met in 1946, the year Cortland resumed football after a three-year lay-off because of the war. They played the next seven consecutive years and the best the Dragons could muster was a 14-14 deadlock in 1952. Last year, leading 27-21 late in the fourth, quarterback John Anselmo found Earl Rogers in the end zone on a crucial fourth and 26 situation. The fine catch by Rogers took the last of the steam out of the Chiefs and iced a Cortland season-opening win. Joe Bramante rushed for 119 yards on 23 carries and scored twice. Dave Urick, graduated linebacker and captain, was the defensive standout. He had two interceptions, knocked down two passes, had 10 unassisted tackles and was named to the ECAC weekly team for his efforts. The Dragons allowed only 67 yards rushing while being touched for 174 through the air, mostly on the 10 receptions by the Chieftain All-America candidate, John Curtis.

INDIANA (PA.)

Co-Captains: John Brochetti Chuck Hasse	Sports Information Director: Randy Jesick 412-463-9111 ext.230
---	--

A Glance at the Series

This will be the first game between the schools.

Game Notes: For the second week in a row Cortland takes on a tough team - the Maroon Indians from Pennsylvania. Last year UIP went 8-1 and yielded but 67 points in doing so, ranking fourth nationally in defense against scoring. Only two of the opposition's nine t.d.'s came on the ground. New coach Bill Neal was the chief defensive coach last year for Chuck Klausing who has resigned to accept a job on the staff at West Virginia. Neal joined the UIP staff in 1969 after serving as assistant head coach at the University of Pittsburgh under Dave Hart. He inherits 16 lettermen with which to launch what the school calls its "toughest schedule in UIP history," which also includes Akron, Hillsdale (Michigan), and traditional Pennsylvania foes.

ITHACA

October 3 at College Field, 2:00

Colors: Blue and Gold Nickname: Bombers Enrollment: 3,700

Head Coach: P. James Butterfield, Maine '53; three-year record—10-14-0.

Assistants: Frank Kennedy, East Stroudsburg '54; Gary Fallon, Syracuse '62; Bob Charney, Bridgeport '65; Howard Hartman, West Virginia Wesleyan '30.

Co-Captains: Tom Polimeni Fred Recchio	Sports Information Director: Phil Langan 607-274-3233

A Glance at the Series

Start: 1930	Last Cortland victory: 1968
Cortland, 14 wins	Last Ithaca victory: 1969
Ithaca, 10 wins	Robinson vs. Ithaca: 4-3-0
Three ties.	Butterfield vs. Cortland: 1-2-0

Game Notes: Ithaca is the oldest rivalry on the Dragon Schedule. The only four-year football playing schools that met Cortland before the IC series began are Slippery Rock, (East) Stroudsburg and Mansfield. It's been a while since the likes of early foes Oswego Normal, Keystone Academy and Morrisville Aggies. From 1930 until the present, the Cortland-Ithaca series has been played consecutively with the exception of the seasons 1935 to 1948. Since 1959 the winner of the traditional battle has won possession of the "Cortaca Jug" for a year. Last year's IC win snapped a 5-5 deadlock and puts the Bombers one up, an incentive fact that won't be overlooked by Robinson's crew this season. The Ithacans took the jug home last year largely thanks to soph QB Doug Campbell who was making his first varsity start after seeing his mates lose their first two games of the year by an improbable total of 89 points. Trailing 28-21 with six minutes to go in the game, Campbell gambled on a 4th and 10 from midfield and not only picked up first down yardage but picked up all the yardage in sight on a 50-yard t.d. scamper. Trailing by one, he flipped a two-point conversion pass to put Cortland in the losing column for the first time in '69. He scored from 10 yards out in the final minute to ice the cake. Ithaca finished the season 3-5. Almost overshadowed by Campbell's heroics were some record-setting Cortland performances. John Anselmo set single game standards for passing yardage, 202 on 13 of 25, and total offense, with 249 yards. His three t.d. aerals also tied a mark shared by two others. Earl Rogers also had a fine day; his eight receptions for 128 yards broke Rod Verkey's old record of 119 yards set in '67 against Post.

C. W. POST

October 10 at College Field, 2:00

Colors: Green and Gold Nickname: Pioneers Enrollment: 5,000

Head Coach: Dom Anile, Post '59, two years—13-7-0

Assistants: Jim Boggs, Post '63 (defensive coordinator); Tom Marshall Detroit '62 (offensive coordinator); Dick Conway, Post '69 (linebackers); Steve Delligatti, Kansas State '54 (offensive line); Chris Kevatos (perimeter); Joe Terilli, Post '70 (receivers); Bill Ashley, Colgate '32 (head freshman coach).

Captains: To be named

Sports Information Director:
To be named 516-299-2673

A Glance at the Series

Start: 1960	Last Cortland victory: 1969, 24-15
Cortland, 5 wins	Last Post victory: 1968, 37-21
Post, 5 wins	Robinson vs. Post: 5-2-0
No ties	Anile vs. Cortland: 1-1-0

Game Notes: If form holds true in this series, then Cortland should break the 5-5 deadlock with the Long Islanders on a sweet note. Post won the first three games between the schools, then Robinson took over as Cortland coach and his teams won four in a row, then Post rebounded for two in a row, finally Cortland won last year. The pattern is that the school that wins, wins at least two, and usually more, in a row, and it follows that it's the hillmen's turn to again work on the win skein. Neither team has ever shut out the other and the games have usually been high scorers. Last year Cortland jumped to an early 21 point lead and then relied upon the defense to hold the Pioneers in the second half, which they did, the final score being 24-15. The Cortland cause was helped by numerous Post fumbles, penalties and interceptions. The Post QB was thrown for losses seven times while trying to pass. The defensive line, especially middle-guard Mike Cappeto, enjoyed season bests. Dave Urlick again played well and defensive corner Paul Wehrum held receiver John Francis to just four harmless completions after he had hauled in 14 the week before. Bramante gained over 100 yards. The Pioneers finished 6-4.

BROCKPORT

October 17 at Memorial Field, Brockport, 2:00

Colors: Green and Gold Nickname: Golden Eagles Enrollment: 7,000

Head Coach: Gerald D'Agostino, Brockport '49, six years—14-32-0

Assistants: Gary Schine, Brockport '68; Wayne Hartman, Brockport '70; Jon Harrington, Brockport '70.

Captain: To be named

Sports Information Director:
William J. Steffin 716-395-2138

A Glance at the Series

Start: 1948	Last Cortland victory: 1969, 73-6
Cortland, 17 wins	Last Brockport victory: 1967, 27-20
Brockport, 2 wins	Robinson vs. Brockport: 6-1-0
Two ties	D'Agostino vs. Cortland: 1-5-0

Game Notes: The year 1957 was a good one for Brockport against Cortland. The Golden Eagles didn't score any points but then neither did Cortland. Another tie in 1954 and wins in '59 and '67 are about the only other things that Brockport has to show for 21 meetings with the only other football-playing school in the SUNYAC. Further, the Eagles have averaged only 6.04 points per game against the Dragons and have found themselves shut out eight times in the series. Seventeen times Brockport has scored no more than one touchdown. The Eagles scored four t.d.'s (for their highwater mark) once, three once, and two twice. Last year they were severely plucked, 73-6. Tom Butcher, in his first start at fullback, gained 94 yards on 14 carries; Joe Bramante picked up another 138 in 19 attempts. All told, the ground attack netted an awesome 469 yards as the offensive line enjoyed its brightest hour. Place-kicker Al Rapp set a new school record by booting 10 pats.

ADELPHI

October 24 at College Field, 2:00

Colors: Brown and Gold Nickname: Panthers Enrollment: 3,100

Head Coach: Roger Rubinetti, Montclair State '63, first year as head coach.

Assistants: Gary Barrette, Wooster '63; Nicholas Rosato, Adelphi '67; John Araneo, Adelphi '70; Dave Bradman, Adelphi '70; Fran McCall, Adelphi.

Co-Captains: Wayne Weaver
Larry Sparta Sports Information Director:
William J. Irwin 212-543-3163

A Glance at the Series

In 1968 Cortland won the only game played between the schools, 10-0.

Game Notes: The last and only time Cortland met Adelphi on the football field, the Panthers were competing on a club basis. Following the trend of many smaller schools, they now are ready to launch their second year of varsity intercollegiate play. They had a club team for three years. They went 4-4 last season.

ALFRED

October 31 at Merrill Field, 1:30

Colors: Purple and Gold Nickname: Saxons Enrollment: 1,900

Head Coach: Alex Yunevich, Purdue '36, 29 years—132-73-10

Assistants: Robert Codispoti, Alfred '65; Stephen Babcock, Brockport '65; Donald Bird, Alfred '70; David Norcross, Alfred '70.

Captains: By game Sports Information Director:
John Nelson 607-587-2283

A Glance at the Series

Start: 1940	Last Cortland victory: 1968, 45-28
Cortland, 9 wins	Last Alfred victory: 1969, 20-17
Alfred, 11 wins	Robinson vs. Alfred: 4-3-0
One tie	Yunevich vs. Cortland: 11-9-1

Game Notes: This will be the 19th straight year that these intra-state rivals have met in a see-saw series that Alfred leads. Alfred owes its two-game edge largely to five straight wins, 1952-56. Cortland's longest streak is three games, 1964-66. Alex Yunevich of Alfred has been the Saxon coach since the series began in 1940. After about 59 minutes of play last year the Dragons would have thought that they would be trying to reach the break-even point with Alfred in 1970. But it wasn't to be. Dragon fans had seen their team lead all the way and were on their way home happy when the Saxons got another fourth down attempt deep in their own territory thanks to a Cortland off-sides. They capitalized with a 60-yard bomb which left them on the Dragon 17-yard line with 36 seconds to play. With just nine seconds showing on the clock, soph QB Jim Moretti, the ECAC's Division II Sophomore of the Year, found Charles Young in the end zone. It was the second of what would be three straight season-ending losses. Anselmo broke his own game passing yardage mark with 211, Bramante gained 112 yards and Rogers had four grabs for 126 yards.

No ties	Zabalski vs. Cortland: 4-0-0

Game Notes: Cortland has been banned in Boston. Banned from beating Northeastern's Huskies, that is. Four straight times now the Dragons have been bitten in their Achilles' heel by the Beantowners. This will be the fifth straight meeting between the two, Cortland's losses being 14-7, 22-0, 20-17 and 27-17. This year Cortland will play Northeastern late in the season after the Huskies have met the likes of Harvard, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine, a tough slate that could either take its toll or have the pack razor-sharp for the hillmen. Last year the teams met in a quagmire and the game was pretty even until the fourth quarter when NU's quarterback, Bob Conners, ripped off two long roll-out runs. On a 60-yard t.d. scamper Conners zigged, two Cortland safeties zagged and fell in the mud. Conners, a signee with the New York Giants, was alone in paydirt country to decide the game. The Red Dragons finished the campaign with mud in their eye.

A Glance at the Series

In 1969 Cortland won the only game played between the schools, 17-7.

Game Notes: Coach Bill Loika specializes in stingy defense. In 1968 his team topped the nation's NCAA College Division schools in fewest points allowed per game, as the enemy averaged only 4.1 points a game over nine contests. The Dragons ran into a tough defense last year but were able to come up with some key plays, both on offense and defense. Cortland lost the battle of the statistics but won the game. Although the Blue Devils rushed for 244 yards, they dented the goal line only once. Urick was outstanding on defense at linebacker, making 13 unassisted tackles, including some drive-stoppers. Deep defensive backs Gary Feger, Paul Wehrum and Dean Peterson had good games. John Anselmo set up the final and clinching touchdown on a nifty 58-yard gallop.

COACH

Jack Boehm came to Cortland as cross country and swimming coach in 1966. Over the last three years his harriers have posted a fine 21-5-1 dual mark. He graduated from Indiana where he swam for former Cortland coach, Jim Counsilman. He also earned his master's from IU and has started work on a doctorate at the State University at Buffalo.

Oates, Bob	Soph	Bellmore
Pfeiffer, George	Soph	Cheek towaga

OUTLOOK

Although it will be a young squad, Coach Jack Boehm still believes that depth will be the strong suit of the cross country team. Only Captain Ed Faulkner and Dick Daymont were graduated from the team that was 6-3 in duals last fall.

In the absence of the seasoned Faulkner, Boehm is hoping that one of the returnees will develop into the front-runner type, capable of winning a meet. At present any one of his top five repeaters could fill that bill. All will be within about 30 second of each other on the Dragon five-mile varsity course.

Sophomore Bob Oates could develop as the team's top threat. He was the highest finishing freshman in the NYSCTFA Meet last year, bagging a ninth. If he comes back in shape to run, he could develop into a good.

Senior Don Myers is well-experienced and will be expected to be a team leader. Another letterman, junior Ed Reid, was the most improved runner among last year's harriers, while George Pfeiffer, a sophomore with good talent, and hard-working soph Craig Cole round out the bulk of the squad.

Boehm has indications that some top frosh will be enrolled in September which will make the squad that much tougher providing they are able to meet the varsity challenge quickly enough. Seasoning may be the team problem, if there is one. If the young team comes around early it should enjoy another good year. Again, the team will be pointing toward high finishes in the invitational and league meets—especially at LeMoyne, where it is the two-time defending champ.

OUTLOOK

"Prof" Holloway will start the new soccer decade at Cortland by welcoming back 17 lettermen from the team that jumped to 7-3 last year after being 5-6 the year before. The Red Mules tied for second with

Buffalo State behind Brockport in the SUNYAC race a year ago; a higher finish this year is not beyond the realm of possibility.

If the hillmen are to move up, or even to hold ground, they must successfully answer certain questions by September 19 because on and after that date 11 tough foes will take a hand in the interrogating.

Two main problems must be overcome: an adequate replacement for departed goalie Bob Van Schaick must be found and ready, and it must be established that the forward line will pack some scoring punch.

"If this group comes back in good shape and we're not hurt by ineligibles, we should have a good year," says Holloway. "Both the juniors and the seniors have had good soccer learning experiences. This group is good enough, and seasoned enough, and if they improve through the season as they should, then there's every reason to expect a strong team."

Losses through graduation, other than Van Schaick, include Joe Chick, Jan DeLano and Terry Wood. However, these departures should not be enough to offset the team strengths, most notable of which will be a fine corps of halfbacks and fullbacks.

Leading the fullback brigade is senior Dave Willard, an All-America selection in the New York State Conference last season. He'll be helped by senior Tim Snyder and junior Doug Galke, both starters a year ago.

Leading the halfbacks will be Tony Sorrentino, Mike Gill and Billy Bulgin. Paul Roller was coming along fast last year and could develop into a starter. A possible team setback was sustained through a spring foot accident to Walt Nadolny who was ticketed to go at center back. Time will tell if the Bayside junior will be able to overcome the loss of a toe in time to spark the offense as it was expected he would do.

Coach Holloway looks for an even distribution of scoring to come from his forwards. Any one of the returning group of Roy Pfeil, Don Atwood, Ken Witick, Bert Severns (if lacrosse foot injuries allow him to play) or Rich Rhodes could emerge as the team's top scorer.

Assuming the forward line is able to score, the next assignment will be to find a way to keep the opposition from returning the compliment. Foremost in solving this problem would be the emergence of a capable goalie. Jack McGetrick, a junior who did not play last year because of ineligibility, is the favorite to win the job but he will be hard-pressed by another junior, Tom Grindle. Neil Bloom, up from the frosh, also could be a factor.

Exactly how much more help can be expected from last year's Baby Mules is an unanswered question. The team was good, but there didn't appear to be any individual standouts.

Other returnees counted on to see heavy duty include seniors Bob White, Tim Doran and Sid Germain at forwards and Keith Agate at fullback; junior halfbacks Gary Lack and transfer Dave Pfeil (brother of senior Roy); and sophomore forward Danny Viglione, freshman lacrosse goalie last spring.

The team should be adequate defensively and fast afield. Physically, the squad will range from average to below. An added boon to the team will be the addition of a full-time varsity assistant coach in the person of Chuck Winters. The Dragons-turned-Mules will need all the help they can get in the tough SUNYAC, especially against those schools that are able to recruit preps, a luxury that Holloway has never been able to afford. Look for an old-fashioned conference dogfight. Almost any school in the loop could win it all.

COACHES

VARSITY: T. Fred "Prof" Holloway, the dean of northeastern soccer coaches, begins his 32nd year with the Red Mules. In 31 years at Cortland he has a record of 172-80-18 and has tutored 18 hill All-Americans. His 1960 squad was undefeated and he has taken four teams to post season NCAA play. His teams have won the SUNYAC five times since the loop's inception in 1959. He holds a B.S. and M.S. in physical education from Springfield and a doctorate from N.Y.U. Before coming to Cortland in 1936 he instructed at both Springfield and the University of Pittsburgh. He is a professor of physical education.

ASSISTANT: Chuck Winters was a 1969 All-American in lacrosse at Bowling Green where he was a two-year co-captain. He played in last year's North-South All-Star Game in Baltimore. He prepped in his hometown of Rochester where he played football and lacrosse. At BGU he became interested in soccer and worked with the program there. He has just completed master's work at his alma mater concurrent with serving as assistant lacrosse coach on the 1970 Falcon team that went 9-0.

FRESHMAN: Fred Taube has just completed his doctorate at Utah after teaching and handling varsity soccer at MacMurray (Ill.) College from 1963-70. He is a 1959 graduate of SUC Brockport where he was a three-year letterman in both soccer and track. He co-captained both teams and was named to the All-New York State soccer team in '59. He received his master's from North Carolina in 1960, then spent three years at Auburn where he coached the soccer club and was a physical education instructor. He had three All-Americans among his MacMurray teams and has been very active in both NCAA and AAU soccer organizations.

The Cover: All-America candidate Earl Rogers will be a three-year starter at wide receiver for the State University College at Cortland's Red Dragons. In his first two years he caught 55 passes for a 17.5 yards per catch average. He will receive special attention from opponents this year but should still be in for his best season. He was named Honorable Mention All-American in 1969.
