BASKETBALL OUTLOOK

Coach Alan Stockholm is guardedly optimistic about the prospects for this year's team. There are several questions that must be answered if the Red Dragons hope to improve on last year's 11-8 record.

The major problem will be finding replacements for record-breaking rebounder Bob Chrust and leading scorer Bill Williams. Chrust averaged 17.7 rebounds and 17.7 points per game while Williams hit for 18.0 points and 8.7 rebounds per game.

Stockholm may well switch to a three-guard offense to offset the lack of height turning to a fast-break offense and a pressing defense. Returning starters at guard are Mike Eidel, who averaged 14.5 last year, and Brian Drohan, who scored at a 6.1 clip. Both are good shooters with the quickness and speed needed for a pressing defense. Drohan is particularly effective on defense. Sophomore prospect Bob Antin looks to be the third guard. Top backcourt reserves are Fred Bruntrager, Dan Davis and sophomore Mike Marsallo. Bruntrager and Marsallo will alternate as the quarterback of the team when they are in action.

In the frontcourt, Stockholm will probably go with forward Earl Rogers and center Bob Alspaugh. Rogers is a good rebounder and scorer but his speciality is defense. He is usually called on to guard the opposition's top scorer. Alspaugh is the key to the Dragon's hopes for success this season. He is an excellent shooter and an adequate defensive player but he has to become more aggressive on the boards to offset the loss of Chrust and Williams. If he can get his share of rebounds, Cortland should be able to make the offense go.

Dan Riggins and Dave Pitonzo will see action up front as will two transfer students, John Pessala and Bob Pultorak. At 6-7, Pessala is the biggest man on the squad.

COACHES

Varsity: Alan J. Stockholm is beginning his third year as head coach of the varsity basketball team at Cortland. He served as head coach for the 1965-66 season, acting as a replacement for "Barney" Williams who was then on a leave of absence, and returned on a full-time basis last season. Stockholm has a two-year record of 18 wins and 19 defeats.

Al is a 1961 graduate of East Stroudsburg State where he majored in health and physical education. The Montrose, Pa., native received his M.A. degree from the University of Maryland in 1963 and is currently working on his doctorate at Indiana University.

Prior to his first assignment at Cortland, Stockholm served as instructor of physical education and basketball coach at Allegany Community College from 1962 through 1965. He returned to his alma mater, East Stroudsburg, in 1966 and served as an assistant professor of physical education and track coach until his reappointment to Cortland. He holds the academic rank of assistant professor of men's physical education.

Freshman: Andy Grieve came to Cortland in 1965 and assumed the duties of freshman coach in basketball and football. Grieve received his bachelor's degree from New York University and his master's degree from Ithaca College. He spent 17 years in the high school ranks, coaching and teaching in both New York and Pennsylvania schools. Before joining the Cortland faculty, Andy was director of health, physical education and recreation at Sherburne High School where he was head football and basketball coach for nine years. Andy is an assistant professor of physical education.

WRESTLING OUTLOOK

The varsity wrestling team is quite young but will have considerable depth. The team consists of 22 sophomores, 16 juniors and only four seniors. Judging from pre-season workouts, a good crop of sophomores, along with several experienced juniors, will form the nucleus of this year's team. One thing working in Coach Vince Gonino's favor is the fact that all varsity grapplers wrestled for him as freshmen.

Several sophomores, such as Jim Tortorici, Mike Davey, Stan Rogers, Ron McDonough, Al King, Ed Zukowski, Gary VanDerzee, Jim Van Wormer and Len Schlacter, should see plenty of action. The juniors whom Coach Gonino is counting on are Gary Freeman, Ron Miller, Ron Behe, Doug Hartman, Tom Butcher and Phil Grebinar. Ken Furnkranz and Jeff Ward are the best seniors on the team.

Three transfer students, Larry Glenz, Mike Dollard and Hank Carpenter, should provide the team with additional depth.

If the sophomores mature under fire and the juniors and seniors continue to improve, Cortland could improve on last year's 6-4 record and be a strong contender for SUNYAC honors.

COACHES

Varsity: Vince Gonino is beginning his first campaign as head wrestling coach at Cortland after four years as freshman wrestling coach. In that four-year period Cortland's frosh grapplers compiled a won-lost record of 30-10-1. Prior to joining Cortland's staff Vince was head wrestling coach at Whitehall High School in Ohio and at Keystone (Pa.) Junior College. He received his bachelor's degree from Ohio State University, his master's degree from Ohio University and is currently working towards his doctorate at Ohio State. While an undergraduate at Ohio State he won two Ohio AAU Championships and captured two awards in Big-Ten championships. A native of Watertown, Vince is a former New York State Section III and New York YMCA champion. In addition to his wrestling duties, he is line coach for the freshman football team, assistant professor of physical education and director of the general physical education program for men.

Freshman: Jim Denham is beginning his first coaching assignment. A graduate of the University of New Hampshire in June, 1969, he is a graduate assistant in physical education at Cortland. The Delmar, N.Y., native received his associate's degree from Dean Junior College in 1967 before he transferred to New Hampshire. While at Dean he was captain of the wrestling team, compiling a record of 12 wins and four defeats. He was elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges. At New Hampshire, he was captain of the first varsity wrestling team in the history of the University and he captained the team again in his senior year. He compiled a record of 16-2-2 and was an award winner in the New England Tournament.

SWIMMING OUTLOOK

Coach Jack Boehm believes that this year's team could be one of the most talented squads in recent years at Cortland but the loss of five versatile performers from last year's team will hurt the overall depth of the squad.

Diver Mitch Mergenthaler is the strongest returnee. He won the most points for the mermen last season, winning 10 times with only one loss. He will receive help from two freshmen, Marty Echentile and Joe Caletka. This should be Cortland's strongest event.

Other veterans who are expected to perform well for the Red Dragons are sprinter George Youtt and breaststroker Ed Hines.

The brightest prospect on the team is sophomore Bob Stefferson. Coach Boehm feels Stefferson was the best freshman he saw last season. Stefferson is an accomplished swimmer in several strokes and is particularly strong in the individual medley.

Others who are counted on for points this season are transfer Jack Cothren in the distances and butterfly, Steve Langendorfer in the distances, freshman John Scheetz in the breaststroke, Murray Banks in the distances and Andy Pastor in the backstroke.

Cortland should have its share of first place winners. The question this season is how many second and third place finishers the team can get. Coach Boehm is generally optimistic and is looking to a winning season.

COACH

Jack Boehm is in his fourth year with the Cortland physical education staff and also is beginning his fourth season as the Red Dragon swimming coach. He is a graduate of Indiana University where he received B.S. and M.S. degrees. Prior to his appointment at Cortland, Jack served as an instructor in physical education at Niagara University. He coached two All-Americans in 1966, his first year at Cortland, Bob McMurray in swimming and Bob Fitts in cross country.

Jack also coaches cross country at Cortland and his 1969 team had an excellent season, compiling a 6-3 record in dual competition, winning the LeMoyne Invitational, finishing second in the SUNYAC Meet and fourth in the NYSCTFA Meet. Jack is an instructor in the physical education department.

INDOOR TRACK OUTLOOK

Cortland's indoor track team is anticipating another outstanding season in 1969-70. With 13 lettermen returning, Coach Joe Pierson feels the team will again be a strong contender for the New York State Collegiate Track and Field Association championship. This won't be an easy task however as all member teams will be out to end the Red Dragons' two-year championship reign.

Cortland will miss the services of two outstanding athletes in Doug Bayly and Murray Banks. Bayly was one of the top scorers in Cortland's history while Banks was the defending State champion in the two-mile event. Bayly will contribute in another way, using his valuable experience to help the team as an assistant coach.

Bob Devins is the top individual performer. Last year's leading scorer in both indoor and outdoor track, Devins will compete in the sprints and long and high jumps and is expected to score in each. Devins will receive support in the sprints from Roy Champagne and Dan Houtman.

Cortland also should be strong in the field events with Geoff Scarth, pole vault, and Jeff Calder, shot. If Gary Drennen recovers from knee surgery, he could contribute significantly in the pole vault.

Leading the way for the Dragons in the middle distances is defending State champion Pete DeFina in the 600. He will receive strong support from Steve Berry, Terry Horton, Roy Pfeil, Bob Wolitarsky, and Ed Hines. Hines is hopeful of breaking both the State and College record in the 1000.

Ed Faulkner, returning from a highly successful cross country season, should lead the way in the distances. Transfer Don Myers and Ed Reid also are expected to score points. Two freshmen, Bob Oates and George Pfeiffer, may break into the picture as well.

COACHES

Head Coach: Joe Pierson begins his fourth year as head coach of indoor track at Cortland. He is a 1961 graduate of Southern Illinois University and earned his master's degree from S.I.U. in 1965. Joe coached and taught for one year at Carbondale High School in Illinois before joining the physical education staff at the U.S. Military Academy and proceeding then to Cortland. Pierson's teams have won two consecutive NYSCTFA indoor championships. He also is the outdoor track coach. In addition to his coaching duties he serves as an assistant professor of physical education.

Assistant Coach: Doug Bayly is beginning his first coaching assignment. A 1969 graduate of Cortland, Bayly is currently working toward his master's degree in physical education as a graduate assistant. An outstanding all-around performer on Cortland's track teams, Doug is one of the Red Dragons' all-time point-scorers. He competed in the hurdles, long jump, pole vault and occasionally in the sprints.

GYMNASTICS OUTLOOK

Coach Bill Tomik isn't overly optimistic of improving on last year's four and seven record. Although most of the team seems to have improved, the squad is lacking in depth and most of the gymnasts may have to double in two or three events.

In addition to the lack of depth, the Red Dragon tumblers are faced with the biggest and toughest schedule in their history. Included on the schedule are major college powers such as Cornell, the defending Ivy League champion, and Syracuse, plus small college powers Montclair State, Slippery Rock and West Chester.

Probably the top individual performer on the team is Ron Coulson who specializes in the long horse vault. He lost only once last season in dual competition. Coulson will receive strong support from all-around men Ray Berman and Jeff McGrath. Berman is particularly strong in the side-horse competition.

Others who are counted on for help are Gary Drennen on the high bar, Mike Martin and sophomore Bill Hillenbrand on the rings and Evan Summer on the long horse vault.

Coach Tomik is very impressed with the attitude of the team. Despite the fact that it has been handicapped by preseason injuries, the members have continued to work extremely hard and are improving at an impressive rate. The main hope of the team is that the hard work and strong individual performances will overcome the depth problem and enable the Dragons to match last year's record.

COACH

Bill Tomik is beginning his eleventh year as the Cortland gymnastics coach. He graduated from Cortland in 1951, received his master's degree from Syracuse in 1956 and his doctorate from Maryland in 1968. Before returning to Cortland, Bill coached and taught at Vestal Central High School, Hamilton College and Hamburg High School. In addition to his coaching duties, Bill is an associate professor of men's physical education.
