1976—3 Out of 4?

It's the year of the Dragon according to the Chinese calendar and Cortland State could be breathing plenty of fire as the 1976 season progresses.

Coach Chuck Winters and his squad will be seeking a third national championship in four seasons with 21 returnees from last year, including the two leading scorers, Jud Smith and Ernie Olson.

Smith was an All-American first-teamer while Olson was selected to the third team and Smith needs but 20 points this year to become Cortland's all-time scoring leader. He's led the club in each of his three previous seasons and scored 57 points last year.

Olson, a senior, notched 47 goals from his crease position last year, his first at Cortland.

Also returning on attack is soph Bill Duford, who scored 24 points, 19 of them assists. Another 24-point frosh was 14-goal man Mike Hoppey.

At midfield, newcomers may be able to make waves as John "Hoover" Walsh, nicknamed for his uncanny ability to gobble up ground balls, and the only freshman to make the team, Bob Leyden, look strong. Ten mid-dies are back from last season and included are the faceoff specialists to fill in for the graduated Chuck Induddi. Jim Burnett, who handled many of the key faceoffs in last season's playoffs, is back along with Pat McHugh and Marty Donahue.

Other returning regulars at midfield include seniors Mike Graziano, Mac Diange and Rick Young as well as juniors Kevin Broderick and Pete Fallon.

Defensively, the unit that sparkled in the playoffs is a unit once more and only one, Jim Selock, is a senior. Dave Richardson, an honorable mention All-America as a soph, is also there, along with junior Dave Allen and soph Jim Burke. Also in the picture are junior returnee Dave Giorgis and soph Paul Bridge, up from the JVs.

In goal, Wayne Werner, who set playoff records for single game and NCAA tournament saves returns with Mike Fifield. A sophomore, Dave Haefele, could be the budding star, however, coming off a standout season as a transfer with the JVs.

This year's schedule shows one new collegiate opponent as well as a game with the Australian National Team. Towson will bring its perennial title challenger to Cortland for the home opener April 17, and the Australians and Cortland will meet April 23 on Coyne Field at Syracuse University. Other home opponents include Hobart, Adelphi, Brockport, and exhibitions with Nassau CC and the Red Dragon alumni.

The road schedule is one of Cortland's toughest ever, with trips planned to Cornell, Syracuse, Washington & Lee, Massachusetts, Ithaca and Geneseo.

The expanded 12-team Division II-III playoffs begin May 12 with the top four regular-season clubs drawing byes.

This year's national title game is slated for University of Maryland-Baltimore County, May 22.

DAVIS FIELD

Red Dragon home games are played on Carl "Chugger" Davis Field, named after the former coach of 31 years.

When approaching from the north or south, use Interstate 81 to exit 11 and follow Route 13 through the city of Cortland to the campus entrance.

From the east or west just follow Route 13 to the campus entrance.

Chuck Winters—Head Coach

"Two outta three ain't bad" for Cortland head coach Chuck Winters. His winning percentage of .775 is far better than two out of three. That's only his national championship win percentage. Last year's NCAA College Division championship was Winters' second in a three year span since he took over the Cortland job. Winters and the Red Dragons won the final USILA sponsored tournament in 1973 and made it to the NCAA's semifinals in 1974.

Cortland is 31-9 under the Bowling Green grad who was an assistant at Cortland for two seasons before taking the top job.

An assistant professor of physical education, Winters is also the junior varsity soccer coach.

Before coming to Cortland, Winters was a member of Bowling Green's coaching staff in lacrosse and soccer.

THE WINTERS WINNERS

1975--10-4, national champs

1974--8-3, national semifinals

1973--13-2, national champs

Assistant Coaches

JERRY CASCIANI--Now in his third season as an assistant with the lacrosse team, Jerry is also an assistant coach in football. An assistant professor of physical education, Casciani has also handled both the varsity and junior varsity wrestling teams during his six years on the Cortland faculty. A graduate of Penn State, he earned a master's degree from Springfield College.

BOB BUHMANN--Helping with the Red Dragon goaltenders is Cornell graduate Bob Buhmann, who was a member of the first NCAA champions back in 1971 as Cornell compiled an 11-0 season. Buhmann's college career also included two seasons with Nassau Community College.

JIM TARNOW--The man who put the national championship back in Cortland will join the Red Dragon staff this season. It was Tarnow's goal that won the 12-11 national championship game over Hobart. Tarnow was one of Cortland's top midfielders last season.

KEVIN SPENCER--The new junior varsity coach is graduate assistant who graduated from Springfield College in 1975. The Monroe, N.Y. native was a lacrosse captain and Most Valuable Player at Springfield as well as playing football. He also coached Cortland's junior varsity wrestling team during the past season.

Cortland co-captains Ernie Olson (left) and Jud Smith hold the NCAA College Division championship trophy captured by the Red Dragons last season.
