CORTLAND UNDER COACH CHUCK WINTERS

In each of his seven years as the head coach of Cortland State's varsity lacrosse team, Charles "Chuck" Winters has guided the Red Dragons into post season tournament play. In 1973, his first year at Cortland, Winters coached the Red 'n White sticks to the USILA crown with a 13-8 ousting of Washington College in the final. The Dragons advanced to the NCAA Division II semi-finals the following year before bowing to Hobart College, 14-10.

Cortland came back to avenge that loss in 1975, Winters' stickmen edging Hobart, 12-11, in the championship game to win their second national lacrosse title in three years.

Although competing in the NCAA Division II tournament during the last four years, the Dragons have been able to advance no further than the semi-final round, that being in 1978. However, the College's success under Winters puts him at the top of the list as the coach with the most lacrosse wins ever at Cortland. His record now stands at 59-34-0.

Winters came to Cortland in 1971 and served two years as an assistant under Jack Emmer, now at Washington & Lee. Previously, he was an assistant at Bowling Green where he earned bachelor's and master's degrees. During his Bowling Green playing days, he was an All-American midfielder and a two-time All-Midwest performer. He played in the North-South game as a senior.

At Cortland, Winters also has coached JV soccer and has been an assistant varsity football coach. He is often invited to participate in lacrosse clinics at the high school and collegiate levels. Last year, he was the coach of the North squad in the annual North-South All-Star Game played in Baltimore. The North won, 21-15.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JERRY CASCIANI--A member of the Cortland faculty since 1970, Jerry Casciani is starting his seventh season as assistant lacrosse coach. He'll be largely responsible for the team's conditioning program and will work extensively with the mid-field lines. He also has served as an assistant coach in football and has handled both varsity and JV wrestling teams. One of Casciani's previous assignments was as head lacrosse coach at Baltimore Junior College for three years. His 1967 team had an undefeated season and won the "unofficial" national junior college championship. Casciani is an alumnus of Springfield College and has a master's degree from Penn State.

LARRY KING--A Cortland alumnus, Larry "Bubba" King played four years of lacrosse for the Red Dragons, playing goal and attack positions. He's coached Cortland's JV team in the past and works principally with the middies and man-up offense on the varsity. King is from Huntington.

KEVIN BRODERICK -- One of the Red Dragons' starting midfielders two years ago, Kevin Broderick is in his second season as an assistant coach. He was a four-year letterman under Coach Winters and was named the most improved player in 1977. He's a native of Setauket, N.Y. He works principally with midfielders and is involved with scouting duties.

WILLIAM J. O'BRIEN -- A native of Rockville Centre, N.Y., Bill O'Brien will assist with the coaching of mid-field lines and do scouting. He played two years at Cortland and two years at Nassau Community College. He's had previous lacrosse coaching experience at Eisenhower College in Seneca Falls, N.Y. His major at Cortland was physical education.

ALEXANDER "SANDY" KAPATOS -- Working with the goalies and team defense is Sandy Kapatos, a native of Bethpage, N.Y. He was a high school and junior college All-American player at Division High School and at Nassau Community College. Before transferring to Cortland, he starred in goal for the University of Maryland in 1978.

RED DRAGON OUTLOOK

To make amends for an uncharacteristic losing season is foremost on the minds of Cortland State's lacrosse team, a veteran unit under the watch of eighth-year head coach Chuck Winters.

Winters has guided Cortland stickmen to a 59-34 record and into post-season tournament action each year, but the coach had never had to reckon with the likes of last year's 6-10 final log.

Cortland has the tools to blot out that memory. Only three players departed the 1979 ranks, and Winters has bolstered his lineup with personnel such as 1978 honorable mention All-America attackman Mark Koetzner. The Massapequan had 34 goals and 26 assists two years ago before taking a leave of absence.

"We'll have to settle on our frontline players earlier than last season, and get our offense going a little sooner," feels Winters. "I also hope we can go out and thump some people and not play down to the competition."

Four straight State University of New York Conference matches following the opener with Ithaca College should help build a solid foundation. Cortland hasn't lost a SUNYAC game since the lacrosse league was formed two years ago.

In addition to Winters, the Red Dragons also have strong leadership in captains Bob Leyden and John Distler. Both are proven performers, Leyden since 1976 freshman days. He was granted an extra season's eligibility because of a knee injury that kept him out of the 1978 season. Last season he scored 20 goals. Leyden landed 16 shots in 1977.

The junior Distler was a second team All-America defenseman last season when he also was chosen the team's Red Letter winner, emblematic of the sport's most valuable player at Cortland. And the honors came despite his absence from several games with an injury.

Also returning is third team All-America Larry O'Leary, senior midfielder who paced last year's pointmen with 16 goals and 31 assists. The next two leading scorers are other hold-overs. They are senior attacker Terry Davis (40-14) and junior attack Mark Leszcynski(34-9).

Adding depth to the scoring line are senior Mike Fitzpatrick (13-4) and sophomore Bob Russo, plus Albany State transfer Dave Benedeto, Brockport transfer Steve Morrow, and junior college imports Tim Curran, brother of returning Dragon Brendan Curran, and John Koerner.

Winters rates his close-defense as his strongest suit. Experienced hands joining Distler are senior Jon Fitzgerald, one-time All-America mention, junior Billy Dunn, and Seth Ohanian. Newcomers expected to be seen often include Jim Robinson, who has a junior college background, and freshman Tim Dibble from Liverpool.

Although goalies Steve McGann and Jim Braun are just sophomores, they learned lessons well last season and are expected to be more than adequate.
