HEAD COACH FRED TAUBE

One of NCAA Division III's most successful soccer coaches, Dr. Fred Taube, has posted a 164-60-21 record during his 16 years as Cortland State head coach.

Taube has taken the Red Dragons to the NCAA Tournament seven times, finishing second in the nation in 1977, and third in the country in 1978 and 1982. The Taube-led Dragons have been involved in post-season tourneys in 13 of the last 16 seasons, having won two ECAC Upstate New York Championships in addition to their NCAA accolades..

A native of Brockport, N.Y., Taube has been honored numerous times by his peers. He has been named the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Coach of the Year an unmatched seven times, most recently in 1983 and 1985. Taube earned regional honors when he was voted the New York State Coach of the Year by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America in 1977, 1979, and 1981.

A member of the Cortland State Physical Education faculty since 1970, Taube was freshman soccer coach before being named head coach in 1973. He succeeded the legendary Fred "Prof" Holloway, who retired after 35 years of teaching and coaching. The newly-rennovated varsity soccer field is named in honor of Holloway, who experienced just three losing seasons in 35 years.

Prior to coming to Cortland State, Taube was a soccer and track coach at MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Illinois, and taught at Auburn University, where he coached the soccer club. He is a 1959 graduate of Brockport State. Taube earned a master's degree from the University of North Carolina in 1960 and a doctorate from the University of Utah in 1974.

Taube, who coordinates the College physical education summer education program at Raquette Lake in The Adirondacks, and his wife, Joan, have two daughters.

The 1989 Cortland State Men's Soccer Guide was written and edited by Peter D. Koryzno, Cortland Sports Information Director, and Kelly Vergin, Sports Information Assistant. Special thanks to the Cortland Standard for the cover photo, and to Quik-Print, Inc. of Cortland for printing the guide.
