Honorary Degree Recipient

Paul M. Alexander '82

As a successful National Football League coach as well as a classical concert pianist and author, Paul Alexander explores the fundamentals of elite-level performance in athletics, music and other fields.

Currently offensive line coach for the Dallas Cowboys, Alexander has coached in the NFL for a quarter of a century, starting with the New York Jets, then spending 23 years employing innovative methods to mold and motivate the widely respected offensive line of the Cincinnati Bengals.

Frequently, he has attributed his coaching success to the experience he had at SUNY Cortland, where he majored in physical education, minored in music and played offensive tackle for the Red Dragons. As a senior, he became the College's first-ever national Academic All-American.

After Cortland, Alexander earned a master's degree in exercise physiology at Pennsylvania State University, serving as a graduate assistant under football legend Joe Paterno. From there, he moved to the University of Michigan as a graduate assistant for another gridiron legend, coach Bo Schembechler.

While he was with Cincinnati, Sports Illustrated called Alexander "the Michelangelo of NFL assistants" and selected him as the best offensive line coach in the league in 2016, when assembling a hypothetical coaching "dream team." He founded the nation's first high school football camp exclusively for linemen and brought in Bengals players to help coach. In 2012, Alexander was inducted into SUNY Cortland's C-Club Hall of Fame.

Despite the time demands of professional football, Alexander began training as a classical pianist 10 years ago, following a love of music he developed at Cortland. Since then, he has performed at the University of Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and other venues, including a combined lecture and performance with the Cortland College-Community Orchestra in Old Main Brown Auditorium. He has also taken a turn at conducting the Hamilton-Fairfield Symphony Orchestra in Ohio.

Noticing the similarities between high-achieving athletes and world-class musicians, Alexander bridged the worlds of coaching and classical piano in Perform, a book that chronicles his journey as an adult piano student and shares lessons for athletes and musicians alike.

Academic Traditions

ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The processional begins with the all-college gonfalonier, who leads in the faculty, followed by the schools of arts and sciences, education and professional studies gonfaloniers, who lead in the students. The processional concludes when the mace bearer brings in the platform party, which consists of members of the College's administration and faculty leadership, the College Council, visiting dignitaries and honorees.

THE MACE

The mace is a ceremonial staff used as a symbol of authority. The mace bearer precedes the platform party and places the mace on a special stand where it remains while the official proceedings of Commencement are underway. SUNY Cortland's mace, the "Torch of Learning," is made of silver and rosewood and was created by local silversmith John Marshall.

THE GONFALONS

The four bright banners carried in the academic procession are called gonfalons. The red, white, black and grey gonfalon represents the College; in blue, grey and burgundy it represents the School of Arts and Sciences; in blue, purple and black it represents the School of Education; and in peach and green it represents the School of Professional Studies.

The gonfalons were designed by Libby Kowalski, professor emerita of art and art history, and Kathy Maher, a 1984 SUNY Cortland graduate. The standards were made by Bard Prentiss, associate professor emeritus of art and art history, and J. Eric Kroot. Materials were provided by the Gilbert and Mary Cahill Foundation and the late Rozanne M. Brooks, distinguished teaching professor emerita of sociology/anthropology.

REGALIA

Commencement lends itself to the pageantry of an academic procession rooted in medieval times. The gowns and hoods worn by faculty members, candidates for graduation and platform dignitaries distinguish the institution from which the wearer was or will be graduated, the level of the degree earned and the field of learning.

In 1985, American colleges established a standard code of academic dress, specifying three types of gowns. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves, the gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve with the front part cut in an arc, and the gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves. The doctoral gown also is trimmed in velvet. The hood's inner lining, which folds out at the back and center, indicates the colors of the institution granting the degree, while the border, which comes around to the front of the neck, represents the field of learning. Universities outside the United States have a variety of shapes and colors of doctoral gowns.

The black mortarboard cap is standard. Its only distinguishing feature is a gold tassel worn by holders of the doctoral degree.

THE HONORS MEDALLION

The graduates wearing silver medallions with red ribbons have completed the SUNY Cortland Honors Program. To complete the Honors Program, a student must take 24 credit hours of honors courses, engage in 40 hours of community service, maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.2, and complete an honors thesis during his or her senior year.

THE KENTE STOLE

The Kente stole is a rich, multicolored, handwoven style of cloth that originated in Ghana, West Africa, and is revered throughout the Africana world. It is traditionally worn during important national ceremonies. The colors, patterns and ideogramatic images of the Kente stole impart information about the wearer and highlight the importance of an event or a ceremony. Similar to the academic hood, the Kente stole is relatively new to commencement ceremonies in the United States and signifies and symbolizes higher education's connection to the rich cultures, intellectual traditions and academic achievements of the Africana world.

SPECIAL PERSON DESIGNATION

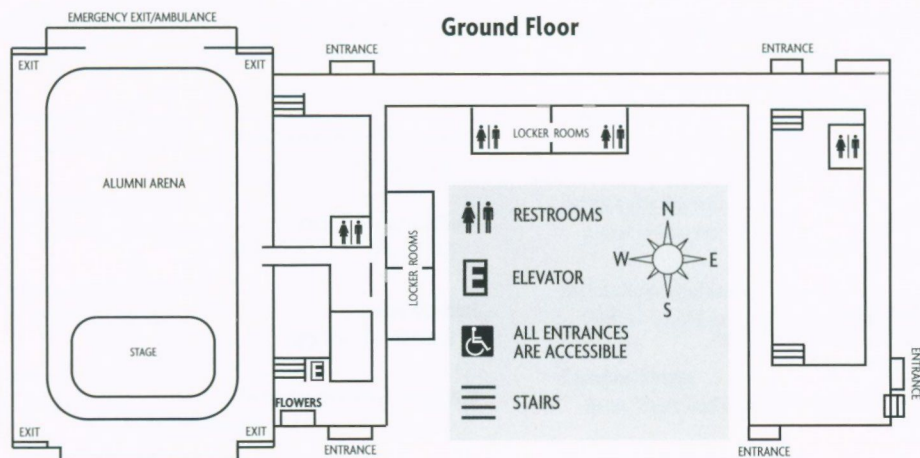

All graduates can designate a special person who has been instrumental in helping them achieve their higher education goals. This individual's name is read along with the graduate's name as he or she walks across the stage at the Commencement ceremony. Students who choose to name a special person do so when they apply for their degree.

INTERNATIONAL FLAG PRESENTATIONS

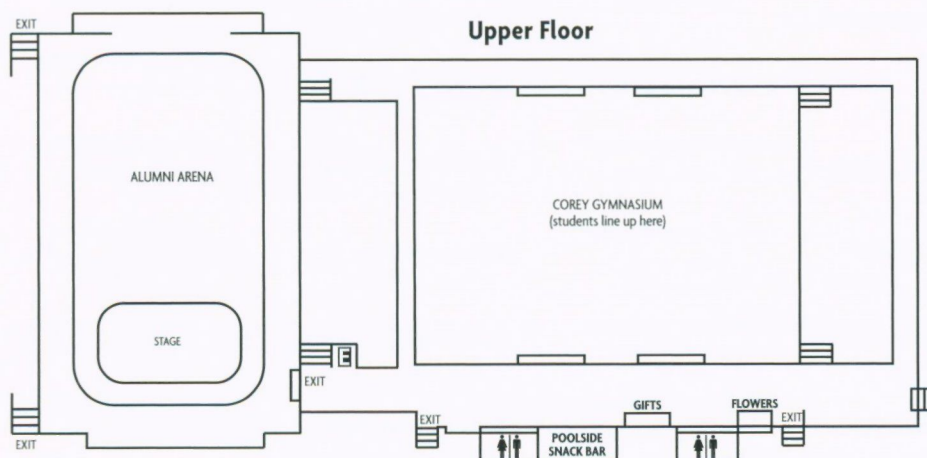

Graduating students representing countries from around the world have the opportunity to present their national flag to the president during the Commencement ceremony. In the past, flags representing Australia, Azerbaijan, Belize, Canada, China, Colombia, Cyprus, France, Ghana, Grenada, Haiti, India, Ireland, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Kenya, Lebanon, Nepal, Peru, Poland, Republic of Congo, Russia, South Korea, St. Lucia, Sweden, Thailand, The Gambia, Turkey and the United Kingdom were received. Flags are displayed on stage during the ceremony and afterward they are exhibited in the lobby of Corey Union.
